Fresh start in YHS Choral Music

By Mark French, YHS Choral Director

The beginning of the year finds the YHS choral groups in better shape than ever.

The Chamber Singers (formerly Varsity Singers) are preparing for back-to-back performances. The first is here on Thursday, Oct. 28 at 7:30 p.m. with the other YHS choirs and orchestras, and the second is the following morning at Northern Illinois University. This year's group promises to surpass the quality of last year's -- keep up the great work!

The future of Chamber Singers is secure thanks to the large, outstanding Freshman Concert Choir. From the beginning this group has demonstrated great vocal and performance potential. Many members of the sophomore and junior classes will also strive for a place in Chamber Singers.

Also of note is the re-structuring in the extra-curricular choral ensembles. The Women's Select Ensemble has grown to nineteen members, all outstanding singers. The Encore Singers are a more versatile group than in past years, adding madrigal and vocal jazz literature to their repertoire. The Varsity Men now includes all the men in the choral program. And finally, the most hotly contested extra-curricular prize this year was membership in YHS' newest group, the Beautyshop Quartet, a female answer to the Varsity Men.

Certain Students took extra time this fall to prepare for All-State Chorus auditions, held Oct. 13 at Oswego High School. They are: Mary Cook, Laura Engelhardt, Nathan Leaf, Melissa Lee, Suzie Lippard, Marta Swanson, and Sondra Trumble.

Make plans NOW to attend Yorkville's First Annual Holiday Dessert to be held on Thursday, Dec. 9 at 7 p.m. at the Congregational Church. Joining the YHS extra-curricular groups mentioned earlier will be various choirs, ensembles, and soloists from Yorkville Churches. Come on out for an evening of entertainment, caroling, and an assortment of sumptuous desserts.

Art

Art students continue learning

By Carolyn Freese, Art Teacher

Yorkville High's art students had a productive summer and are once again hard at work creating art, learning new techniques and improving skills. Rachel Engelhardt's watercolor won "Best-of-Show" award over group of entries at the revived Kendall County Fair this summer, while Kurt Schoenfelder and Tyler Thomas spent a week at Northern Illinois University's summer camp for visual art. Kurt and Tyler were both able to attend camp on scholarships awarded jointly by Yorkville Women's Club and from proceeds earned from the "Showcase of the Arts" T-shirt sales.

Former students Danielle Lippard, Jennie Elkerton, and Aaron Danker (all '93 graduates) are attending colleges, universities, and institutes around the United States. Each is pursuing an art degree and future career.

Back at the home front, our classes are bursting with new talents in the Basic Design courses and have eagerly welcomed back students taking advanced art studies. It is always exciting to see enrollment in these courses grow and to see so many students "turned on" by the labors of art production.

'Lunatics at Large' reach YHS stage

By Colleen Konop, Fall Play Director

It was a dark and stormy night. Suddenly a shot rang out! And so begins and ends Act I of Yorkville High's fall production of the James Reach play, Lunatics at Large. Set in a remote manor, the home of such characters as Lady MacBeth, Mr. Hyde, John Alden, and Priscilla, the action of the play revolves around a murder, the disappearance of a mysterious little black box, and a cast of zany characters doing their best to confuse matters as much as possible.

Don and Lucille Cutter, played by Nathan Leaf and Kerry Duffy, are the owners of Madcap Manor. With the able assistance of Dr. Janet (Marta Swanson) and the ever present Wing (Tony Scott), they do their best to keep things on a normal level. When a dark man from the past surfaces (Mr. Burke played by Dan Grote) and is murdered, the less than capable Inspector Britt shows up to unravel the mystery. Britt (Michelle McCormick) takes control and spends her time questioning the rest of the manor's guests: Greg and Clair Stevens (Tony Tomasek and Nichole Olin), Mrs. Adair and her deluded daughter Elaine (Rachel Engelhardt and Sarah Krowka), and our ever present four "loonies"

Lady MacBeth (Rommy Muller), Mr. Hyde (James Mickelson), John Alden (Matt Wulf), and Priscilla (Erin Segal).

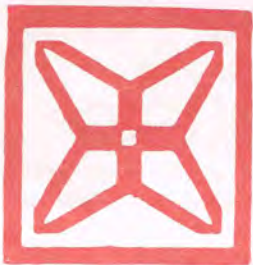

The fast-paced action, the memorable characters, and the comedic elements in the "who-dun-it" format will make Lunatics at Large a play worth seeing! See you all at the show.

Restored piano adds a touch of class

Those in attendance at high school choral concerts this year will be sure to notice the restored grand piano. The work, both inside and out, was completed by Mark Foss of Elburn.

Dr. Henrickson accepts position in Lincolnwood

By Matt Wulf

Dr. Martha Henricksen has been awarded a teaching position at the prestigious Middle School in Lincolnwood, Ill.

She hopes that she was able to instill a really fine work ethic in the students she taught in Yorkville, where she served as department head and orchestra teacher.

She will always remember the camaraderie that the orchestra department had. The one thing that stands out in Dr. Henricksen's mind about the community is the parent involvement and concern for the children. She will remember the nice people.

She would like to tell the orchestra students to "Never quit, and believe in themselves and they can accomplish anything."

We all wish Dr. H. well in her new job.

Boosters prepare for a new year of supporting school music programs

By Donna Bastian, Music Boosters President

Music Boosters has had a busy Fall, starting with Open House and the Patron Program, then right into the cheese and sausage sale. Next will be the concessions at the Christmas Craft Show on December 9. The Ice Cream Social is our big Spring project. This may sound like lots of fund raising -- it is. But we are very proud of what we have accomplished for our music students.

Any Yorkville music student who wishes to attend music camp in the summer receives a scholarship for up to $150. This has helped many students to be able to attend and to bring their new skills to our music organizations. The Jamison Elkerton Scholarship of $1000 to a graduating senior majoring in music is another project of which we are very proud. We have also helped to fund students going to All-State, we have bought choir robes, trophies, posture chairs, and had the piano refurbished (isn't it beautiful!), and many other things.

Please, if you can spare any time for any of the projects we have planned, it will be a great help. Please support us by becoming a patron, this is an ongoing effort. The names of all patrons will be published in Fan Fare.

Music Booster meetings are on the third Monday of each month at 7 p.m. in the Yorkville High School Music Room.

Orchestra

New face joins music faculty

By Matt Wulf

There's a new face in the orchestra department at Yorkville High School. This face belongs to the new orchestra teacher Heidi Keippel. A graduate of U of I, she majored in music. This is her first teaching position. According to Miss Keippel, Yorkville is a great place for a first teaching job. "The atmosphere is great, and the teaching staff is so friendly." As a student at Wheeling High School, Heidi was the recipient of a four year scholarship through auditions, to attend U of I, also was the runner up to the prestigious Krolick Award for bass and viola also through audition. Keippel received these awards for playing the viola. Miss Keippel hopes to bring real spirit to the orchestra and make the students proud of their participation.

After growing up in Wheeling, Ill., this is her first real experience with small community life. Keippel is glad to be part of it, because "everyone seems to care in a small community," she commented. She lives in Wheeling right now, with her parents, but will be moving to Lisle in the middle of November.

Keippel plays viola and has been a member of the Champaign-Urbana Symphony and Danville Symphony Orchestras.

Help make your child's music education even better!

Each year Yorkville Music Boosters provide financial support to the school music programs- from elementary general music classes through high school performing groups. Boosters provide the "extras" that enhance the educational opportunities in music and the arts in the school district.

In the past year, Music Boosters have spent $28,000 on:

- a $1,000 scholarship to a graduating senior pursuing a degree in music.
- more than 20 music camp scholarships of $150 each.
- 50 new choir robes .
- instrument rental.
- refurbishing of the Music Department grand piano.
- Marching Band drum major uniform.
- contest and competition fees and expenses.

Music Boosters' main fund raising activities each year are the Cheese and Sausage sale and Ice Cream Social. Help and ideas are always needed to make these events successful. Parents of all music students- chorus, band and orchestra- are automatically part of Music Boosters. We would especially welcome parents of choral students as there are none currently on our board.

With the help of all parents, Music Boosters can provide even more for our students. Boosters meet on the third Monday of every month (Nov. 15 and Dec. 20) . If you are unable to attend these meetings, you may be able to help at the Ice Cream Social, serving refreshments at other functions, or chaperoning on trips to music contests.

For more information, contact your child's music teacher, Music Boosters President Donna Bastian, 553-6740, or Kathy Farren, 553-7327.

General music classes 'tune-up' for fall

By Mark French, Choral Teacher

Many different activities are combined to teach the understanding of music at Circle Center Intermediate School, however, if the students first learn to have fun and cooperate together as a group, they will pick up musical concepts much more quickly.

We began the fall with several activities that got the kids sharing verbally with each other -- their likes and dislikes, their favorite season of the year, and even why they were the "coolest" fifth grader.

The result was a freer classroom atmosphere. The singing, listening and other group activities have run more smoothly as a result of these initial exercises in group dynamics.
