Growth in Music Department Challenge for Music Boosters

I look at the talent of our students and the dedication of the music staff with awe. Every year brings new and exciting performances. We would like to thank Vern Spevak for establishing the Drum Show last spring. The cafetorium was filled to capacity. What an exciting evening! Music Boosters has been asked to get involved with this years Drum Show performance and we are looking forward to helping Mr. Spevak give all those who attend another incredible evening.

Last year we had the largest patron support ever. This shows us that you value and support the music program in our district. We can't thank you enough. I must confess that we look forward to each new year with enthusiasm. We never know what challenges lie ahead but we always look forward to meeting those challenges.

It hasn't been determined what items we will be purchasing for the music departments this year, but with the growth of the programs, new and innovative ideas to stimulate the students, we are never lacking for ways to spend our money.

I would like to thank the students, patrons, families, friends, businesses, teachers, staff, and administration for your continued support. We could not achieve what we have without your constant support. If you are not already a patron, please use the form found in the back to support the Music Boosters and to promote the Arts in Yorkville.

Memories are made of this . . .

If you stick with something long enough, good things will eventually happen. Participating in music groups like the ones we have in our schools can really be a lifelong experience. The band students are probably tired of me talking about the Northshore Concert Band. That's the band I've been associated with, now for 22 years, and I plan on being in it for several years to come.

Yes, at times it has been a struggle to make every rehearsal, (you do not miss a concert), but the rewards far outweigh this. Rewards? I preach how our bands at Yorkville are family. It's true. A great many friendships are created in band. Our band members share the joy of others and also help those that may be hurting. We work together, trying to achieve or attain a common good for the group. We work and play for a common goal: that of success. Are there bumps along the way? You bet! But again, the good of the group, the family, always shines through.

It seems there is a need for bands to travel, as if for nothing else to say, thanks for a job well done! You deserve it! Just as the high school bands have traveled to Toronto, Orlando and Washington, D. C. I have traveled with the Northshore Band: most recently this summer to La Croix Vallmer, France. Yes, France! La Croix Vallmer is a small village in the south of France. In addition to playing six concerts in nine days, we had the opportunity to visit Monaco, St. Tropez, Nice and Le Predat among other beautiful villages. Many, many memories.

But, these are just villages with buildings. Meeting people from a different country, a different continent. Hello . . . sharing conversation, food ideas, values, money. These are memories that will not escape me. The Northshore Band is, or was, the first band from the United States to play in this festival. We shared music in places that I doubt I'll ever play in again. But, you see, I now have memories that are forever mine.

Back in 1980, I didn't join the Northshore Band to travel to France, I joined because I could still play my bassoon, and I thought I'd be of some value to the organization. I joined because I knew that this band had an outstanding reputation. I joined because of a special band family. Being in band beginning way back in fifth grade can provide a great many experiences along the way. You can still have those experiences after high school, if you stick with it. There will be bumps, but those will be few. Have the time of your life! Good things will happen!

YHS Orchestra members attend seminar

On Thursday, September 27th eight members of the YHS Philharmonic Orchestra went to Eastern Illinois University in Charleston, Illinois where they attended a seminar on String Pedagogy and received tutoring on auditioning for music festivals. The Eastern University String Faculty led by violinist Kathleen Ryan worked closely with the String students on techniques and styles associated with the Illinois Music Educators Association (IMEA) Festival audition.

Latisha Brengman, Lindsey Burt, Brittany Kot, Laura Mueller, Brendan McCurdy, Amanda Schield, Andrea VanPelt, and Lauren Younce attended the seminar.

YHS music students prepare for IMEA auditions

Nine students from the YHS Orchestra and Choir Departments auditioned for the IMEA (Illinois Music Educator's Association) District IX Music Festival held at Addison Trail High School on Tuesday, October 9, 2001.

The students competed against other area high schools' music students to earn the right to perform in the 2001 IMEA District IX Concert to be held on Saturday, November 17, 2001, at Benet Academy in Lisle, Illinois. Competition and the actual audition was very stressful.

Those who auditioned were judged on musical talent in many areas: note/rhythm accuracy; quality of tone; scales and musicianship to name a few. Students were ranked on a point scale as they competed among all auditioning with the same instrument, vocally or instrumentally. Students who excelled in the initial audition at Addison Trail High School are eligible to be selected for the All-State Music Festival held in Peoria in January 2002.

2001 – 2002 Choral Festivals

The Fall of 2001 proves to be a busy season for the YHS Chamber Singers. On October 17th, the 49 singers will be heading for Northern Illinois University to perform in the NIU High School Choir Day Festival. Ten Northern Illinois area high schools will be performing for each other.

A 25 minute warm-up time is provided for each choir prior to the performance. Immediately following the performance, guest clinician Mary Alice Stollak of Michigan State University's Community Music School will work with the choir for 10-15 minutes. Each choir will have a follow-up clinic with NIU School of Music faculty members Eric Johnson or Sandra Frey Stegman. All high school choirs will then have an opportunity to hear a performance by the Northern Illinois University Choir.

Varsity Singers hope to attend the Women's Chorus Day for treble choirs at NIU on February 6, 2002. Women's Chorus Day brings treble choirs together to address the unique characteristics and expressive potential of the high school women's chorus.

On Thursday, November 15, 2001, Chamber Singers will be going to Morris High School to attend the Suburban Prairie Conference Choir Day. The festival will be held during the school day.

All choirs (approximately 16 total) will attend either a morning or an afternoon session. Each performing group is to prepare two selections for evaluation and then have a mini-clinic with the clinician during the remaining time after their performance. The audience will consist of the schools in attendance at that particular a.m. or p.m. session. Students will gain insight from each school's performance and from the clinician's comments.

At the conclusion of each session, a massed choir consisting of all the participants will perform a musical selection, already prepared by each director, to be rehearsed and conducted by the guest clinician.

Madrigal Singers Prepare for 8th Annual Madrigal Dinner Performance

The 2001 YHS Madrigal Singers auditioned last March for this year's Madrigal Singers Class which is a curricular YHS music class for the second year. The 2001 Madrigal Singers has a membership of 24 singers: Beth Aulis, Mike Bassett, Sera Card, Frank Cesarone, Megan DeBord, Joy Doverspike, Erin Dunn, Matt Engelhardt, Mike Good, Therese Grommes, Edd Henry, Becca Horner, Abby Johnson, Jessica Joray, Ashley Lies, Scott McCartney, Laura Olson, Nika Plattos, Jimmy Ratos, Andrew Shaw, Whitney Trumble, Mike Wehrli, Alex Whittington and Griffin Whittington. The singers are busy organizing, planning and rehearsing for this year's Madrigal Dinner Productions.

This year's Madrigal Dinner format will be changed somewhat. In the past, we have been entertained and guided through the course of the Madrigal Dinner by Jesters only. This year, we have added a wench played by Meggie Malley and a Lord and Lady performed by Jim Frey and Jill Ridenour. Our two Jesters for the 2001 Madrigal Dinner are Kristin White and Robert Cool.

The 8th annual Madrigal Dinner Performance is Saturday and Sunday, December 1 - 2 in the YHS Cafetorium, beginning at 6:00 p.m. in the YHS Large Group Instruction Room with entertainment being provided by the Madrigal Strings and Brass. Tickets for the 8th annual Madrigal Dinner will go on sale mid-late October.
