YHS Madrigal Singers perform on WGN Channel 9

You've got to be kidding – we're leaving YHS at what time? The 2000 YHS Madrigal Singers woke up very early on Thursday, December 21, 2000. Most YHS students were enjoying their first morning of break – sleeping in. This was not the case for the twenty-three YHS Madrigal Singers and three jesters who left Yorkville at 4:30 a.m. to trudge downtown Chicago to arrive at the WGN Television Studio to perform live on the WGN Morning Show at 7:00.

The students performed in four different spots during the 7–8:00 segment of the morning show. Each spot was approximately thirty seconds to one minute long. The singers began a song and then were faded out for a commercial. The fourth spot allowed the Madrigal Singers to perform two songs in their entirety.

Following the performance on the WGN Morning Show, the students were allowed to go into the news studio and meet the WGN Morning Show Cast and Crew: Anchors Larry Potash and Roseanne Tellez, Sports Mike Barz, Weather Paul Konrad, and Traffic Robin Baumgarten. The 2000 Madrigal Singers are Sera Card, Frank Cesarone, Joy Doverspike, Erin Dunn, Matt Engelhardt, Mike Good, Therese Grommes, Becca Horner, Abby Johnson, Jessica Joray, Ashley Lies, Meggie Malley, Scott McCartney, Jr Pesina, Rachel Seby, Andrew Shaw, Pete Thomas, Matt Tripp, Whitney Trumble, Ashley Turner, Mike Wehrli, Alex Whittington, Griffin Whittington. The jesters are Kara Nenne, Rachael Brian, and Heather Ferguson.

Thanks to Dale and Donna Seby for joining us on our WGN experience. Many others helped the Madrigal Singers throughout the year.

A big thanks to Connie and George Card for all of their help in organizing the 7th Annual Madrigal Dinner as Chairpersons and duo in charge of publicity and tickets. Special thanks are also extended to all of the parents who helped with set up, clean up, kitchen help, etc. etc. etc. Katie Pfaff and Nich Groesch as food bearers, and Ben Sibenaller, court juggler, added their talents and contributions to the evening's festivities. All efforts combined helped make the 7th Annual Madrigal Dinner Production a success. Music Boosters, thank you for your support in all you do to allow the Madrigal Dinners to remain an annual performance. Three cheers for the Yorkville Music Boosters!

Mr. Gerry Romack and the Madrigal Strings Andrea VanPelt, Corrine Cox, Hilary Hawkinson, Brendan McCurdy, Laura Ferris, Tania Pavlovic, Lauren Younce, Rebecca Crown, Carin Fisher, Brendan Neuman, Kelly Stallman, Rebecca Hart, and Brittney Kot with Mr. Steve Moline and the Madrigal Brass Megan Pocius, Jill Ridenour, Tabitha Boorsma, and Alesia Perry are thanked for performing at the Madrigal Dinner.

YMS performs Bye, Bye, Birdie; a stunning success!

“First-rate comedy” may be the words that come to mind when you think back on “Bye, Bye, Birdie”, which played before a packed YMS gymnasium on the evenings of both March 22 and 23. However, added to that phrase were several other firsts for this comedy about an Elvis Presley double and his influence on several people including much of the population of Sweetapple, Ohio. According to YMS music director Mrs. Christy Flanagan, “Bye, Bye, Birdie” had at least five other “firsts.”

The musical, co-directed by Ms. Effie Vitale and Mrs. Christy Flanagan, was the first musical that has ever been done at the middle school level here in Yorkville. This year is Mr. Schafer’s first year as the Industrial Arts teacher at YMS. Mr. Schafer built the sets that helped create the illusion of the MacAfee house, the train station, and the courthouse of Sweetapple. “Bye, Bye, Birdie” was also the first show that had a full tap dance routine in it. This tap routine was adeptly performed by the multi-talented Robert Cool, Brittany Ardelean, and Beth Washak and was choreographed by Mrs. Flanagan. This was also Robert’s first time ever to tap dance in his whole life! Added to the other dancing routines, costuming, and Mrs. Mary Ann Free’s beautiful piano playing, this musical was really an eye-ful and an ear-ful!!!

Many people thought the idea of middle school students putting on a musical was crazy. Many people thought it couldn’t be done. Many people thought the show would flop. Many people were wrong! YMS’s performance of “Bye Bye Birdie” was not only fantastic but a huge success as well! The middle school students brought their characters to life through their wonderful singing and dancing! Often times, music from musicals is thought to be too demanding on the adolescent voice; however, the students sang without fear or frustration. Mr. Gerry Romack (Director of Orchestras) was able to persuade West Aurora High School into loaning their sound equipment for a small donation. This gave the singers an opportunity to work with wireless microphones for the first time, an opportunity one usually doesn’t get when performing a show that doesn’t have music.

We are all proud of the hard work the students gave and thankful for everyone who lent a hand to make this show a success.

Thank you West Aurora High School for donating the sound equipment. Thank you Mr. Gerry Romack, Brad Smith, and crew for running the sound. Thanks to Mrs. Nancy McCree, and Julie Theis for getting costumes. Thank you Mrs. Barb Johnson for overseeing the scene changes. Thank you Mr. Jeff Eaton for videotaping the show. Thanks to the custodial staff for setting up and tearing down the gym. Thank you staff and administration for altering schedules to make it all happen. Also, thanks to all who came and saw the show, you can be assured that there will be more musicals performed at YMS in the future!
